Meet Philippe Flynn from Switzerland

Gender: Male
Age (at arrival): 16 years
Program length: Year

Philippe is an independent and athletic young man who is interested in math and computer science. He loves trying new things, especially sports like tennis, soccer, volleyball, rugby, and windsurfing! At home, he is close with his parents and younger brother. He attends boarding school during the week, so he's used to living away from home. Philippe is respected by his parents and teachers for his patient, calm nature and academic focus. He is looking forward to experiencing life in a different country, improving his English skills, making new friends, and learning about American football.
