From Author's Introduction Notes by Dean Pitchford:

"Footloose is actually the story of a man who's lost his son, a boy who's lost his father, and how those two help each other to heal."

"Footloose is – and has always been – a human-sized story." "As you read through your script, make this simple substitution: every time you see the word 'dance,' substitute the word ... 'forgive.' So when you read a line like 'Who's ready to dance?!,' hear it – in your mind – as, 'Who's ready to forgive?!'"

"Mama Says" that Footloose was originally performed at Highlands in Spring 2002!

"Dancin' in not a crime" as we celebrate the magic of musical theater and honor the 38th musical year in our golden history!
