

Name: _____

Web Research: Cancer (30 points)

Directions: Go to www.cancer.gov , Cancer Topics, then-click What is Cancer?

1. What is cancer? (Briefly explain)

Go back to Cancer Topics-then Click Treatment-Treatment Methods- then Click Types of treatment – Surgery – Cryosurgery Q and A

2. What is cryosurgery?
3. Which types of cancer does cryosurgery treat?
4. Can cryosurgery be used to treat prostate cancer? Briefly explain

Go back to Types of Treatment-Click Chemotherapy Side-Effects Facts Sheet-Then Click Understanding Chemotherapy.

5. What is Chemotherapy?
6. How can it help me?

Go back to Types of Treatment-Click Radiation Therapy for Cancer

7. What is Radiation Therapy?
8. How does Radiation Therapy kill cancer cells?
9. Does Radiation Therapy kill only cancer cells?

Go search box – then type Breast MRI then click MRI detects Cancers in the Opposite Breast....

10. MRI scans detected 90% of cancers located _____ that were missed by _____ and clinical breast exams.
11. One in _____ women diagnosed with cancer in one breast will _____

Go back to Cancer Topics click Screening and Testing then click Breast Cancer then scroll down to the title Mammograms and click Mammograms

12. What is a screening mammogram?

13. How are screening and diagnostic mammograms different?

Scroll down to Related Resources then Click Breast Cancer Risk in American Women

14. What are the 14 factors that increase a woman's risk for breast cancer under #3 on this page?

Go back to Screening and Testing – then click Cervical Cancer–then click PapTest then click Pap Test and Cervical Health

- 15. What is a Pap Test?
- 16. Could I have cervical cancer and not know it?
- 17. Who needs a Pap Test?

Go back and click Pap and HPV Testing

- 18. What causes cervical cancer?
- 19. When should a woman begin cervical cancer screening? Do women who have been vaccinated against HPVs still need to be screened?

Go back to Screening and Testing-then click Colon and Rectal Cancer-then click Tests to detect Colorectal Cancer and Polyps

- 20. Briefly explain colorectal cancer? What are the 8 risk factors for colorectal cancer)

21. What is an FOBT?

22. What is a sigmoidoscopy?

23. What is a colonoscopy? What is a virtual colonoscopy?

24. What is a DCBE? Briefly explain

Go back to Screening and Testing-then click Other Types of Cancer-then click-Testicular Cancer Then click-patient link-then click Testicular Cancer Screening in left column- Complete from the title: There is No Standard Or Routine Screening Test For Testicular Cancer

24. Most often, testicular cancer is first found by men themselves, either by _____ or during _____. Sometimes the cancer is found by a doctor during a routine _____.

Click-Cancer Topics – Go to the Title Preventions, Genetics, Causes-then click-Smoking Homepage

- 25. How many deaths each year from tobacco?
- 26. How many deaths each year from secondhand smoke?
- 27. Lung cancer is the leading cause of death in _____% of men and _____% of women.
- 28. People who smoke are how many more times likely to suffer a heart attack than nonsmokers?
- 29. In 2011 _____% of adults were cigarette smokers.
- 30. _____ percent of high school students smoke.

